

SAP Executive Summit 2019 Privacy Policy

(“SES Privacy Policy”)

1. Introduction

SAP Italia S.p.A., Via Monza 7A 7A, Vimercate 20871, Italia (“SAP”) organizes SAP Executive Summit event, in Villa d’Este, Cernobbio (Como), you register for (the “Conference” or alternatively the “Event”). Unless you expressly agree otherwise (in particular as described in section 4. below) or if required by law, SAP will use any personal data you provide during the registration process, during the conference, or otherwise in connection with the Conference solely for the purposes set out in section 2. below. This SES Privacy Policy covers the data you provided in connection with the Conference; if you provide data to SAP in another context, e.g. in connection with the purchase of a SAP product or services, the data you provided in such other context may be covered by a separate privacy policy.

2. Use of your data obtained in connection with the Conference.

a. Registration data.

In connection with your registration, you have to provide basic registration and conference information to us, namely your contact information (name, company, email and telephone number), job title and function, your relation to SAP (i.e. partner, customer, etc.), registration time/date. You may further provide to us information on event participation related information (such as speaker engagement, sponsorship, or particular sessions and workshops you register for), and any particular interests and other information with respect to the Conference you provide to us in connection with the registration (together with the data listed in the previous sentence, the “Registration Data”).

SAP will use your Registration Data to manage your registration, to conduct the conference (including communication with you before and during the Conference), Conference follow up (including an offer to participate in an attendee satisfaction survey) and fulfillment of any requests of you to SAP in connection with the Conference.

SAP may include your Registration Data, your choices with respect to marketing communication (see section 4.a. below), and further information you provide to SAP in connection with the Conference in its customer relationship management system (“SAP CRM”) and combine it with existing SAP CRM data relating to you, including your participation at prior events.

SAP may use third parties for the provision of services in connection with the Conference and the fulfillment of obligations towards you. Such third parties may process your Registration Data on behalf of SAP; they include data/website hosting providers. Any use of service providers outside the European Economic Area will be subject to ensuring an adequate level of data protection, for example by means of entering into EU Model Clauses with the provider; you may request a copy of the EU Model Clauses SAP entered into from SAP (see contact in section 5. below).

b. Survey data. Conference information.

If you participate in a survey, SAP will use this information only in an anonymous manner unless you have expressly consented to a non-anonymous use. SAP may further use Registration Data and other data provided by you to create anonymous, aggregate information, in particular to improve products, services and future events; no personal data will be used for this purpose.

c. Conference badges. Activity tracking.

If you allow SAP or others to scan your conference badge or to record your respective activity (such as attending a specific session at the event), your data will be tracked and third parties may use your contact information included in the badge to contact you as further set out in section 3. You do not have to provide your data as described above for these purposes, this is your sole discretion.

d. Sensitive data.

If you provide special categories of data to us which enjoy particular protection under Italian and EU data protection law (“Special Categories of Personal Data”) such as data relating to your health, this data will only be used for the purposes you provide the data for. You may for example chose to provide information on your diet requirements or any disabilities you have to us in order to enable us to reflect the information in connection with your attendance at the conference (provision of respective meals, enabling you access to the conference etc.). These data will be treated as Special Categories of Personal Data and not be used for any purposes other than those you provided them for.

3. No unauthorized data sharing with third parties. Conference badges.

SAP will not provide your information for marketing purposes to any unrelated third parties without your authorization. In this context please note that the contact information submitted in your registration (name, title, company, e-mail, relation with SAP) could be available via a QR code, barcode, RFID chip or similar technology. In addition, many smart phones are equipped with code scanners. It is at your discretion to agree to provide your badge to any person for scanning, which will allow the person to collect your information and use it for future (marketing and other) purposes. SAP has no control, responsibility, or liability associated with any sponsors’ or other third party’s collection or use of your information. If you do not want such collection and use, do not provide or allow your badge to be scanned or your data to recorded by any means.

4. Use of data in accordance with your consent.

a. Marketing consent to be contacted about events, products or services.

If you opt in to be contacted (in line with your consent) by SAP about its product or services and other marketing events or activities, the SAP Group may use your Registration Data, as well as (to the extent available in the SAP CRM or otherwise) an interaction profile based on your prior interactions with SAP including your participation at prior events, in order to keep you up to date on the latest SAP product announcements including software products and services, system enhancements, special offers, and other information regarding the SAP Group’s organizations (including marketing-related newsletters) as well as other marketing events and activities. The SAP Group may contact you by email, phone or by using any other communication address you have provided. In connection with the marketing-related activities, the SAP Group may provide a hashed user ID to third party operated social networks or other web offerings (e.g. Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram or Google) where this information is then matched against the social networks’ data or web offerings’ own bases in order to display to you more relevant information.

b. SAP affiliates

If you consent to it, SAP may share your personal data contained in the SAP CRM with its affiliated companies in the SAP Group and all SAP Group companies may use the data for the same marketing purposes related to SAP Group product and services and under the same conditions as SAP. The “SAP Group” includes various SAP named affiliated companies around the world as well as various SAP affiliates with more distinctive non-SAP brand names including Ariba, Concur, Hybris, SuccessFactors, and Sybase, a list of all SAP affiliates can be found here.

c. You may withdraw your consent with respect to any or both of the above cases under this section

4. at any time. Please direct any such request to webmaster@sap.com .

5. Use of Images, Photographs and video recording

SAP will record in all or in part the Conference including general and specialized sessions for broadcast to participants not attending the Conference live, and for internal and external communications purposes about the Conference (“Legitimate Recording”). You acknowledge that as a result of attending the Conference SAP may record your image, photograph, and voice by any technology or means indiscriminately as part of the Conference recording where you are a non-material part of the aforementioned recording in accordance with and as allowed under applicable law. During panel or other discussion sessions where you volunteer to speak, you acknowledge that SAP may broadcast, film or photograph you individually and if you do not wish to be broadcasted, filmed or photographed in this way please refrain from volunteering.

You may object to SAP using Legitimate Recording at any time by contacting: SAP Executive Summit Event Secretariat: sapexecutivesummit@hi-comm.it
